

New York Education Standards High School: Grades 9-12

Philadelphia is best seen by foot, and The Constitutional Walking Tour of Philadelphia (“The Constitutional”) offers the unique opportunity to follow in the Founding Fathers’ footsteps and discover America’s Birthplace. The Constitutional guides you through the Independence National Historical Park area by connecting the buildings and places where the events of the American Revolution transpired. The Constitutional tells the dramatic story of the brave men and women who were responsible for creating America.

The Constitutional Walking Tour is also an excellent tool to help you and your students meet state education requirements in a fun and interactive way. This document provides a detailed listing of the New York State Education Standards that The Constitutional addresses during your journey through Historic Philadelphia. This guide is for New York High School students, Grades 9-12. If you are interested in viewing an overview for other grade levels or states, please visit our Web site at: <http://www.TheConstitutional.com/standards> .

In addition, once you book a tour with us, we help you maximize your visit to Historic Philadelphia with The Constitutional Walking Tour’s FREE Teacher Resource Guide which provides useful information on Historic Philadelphia, including pre-trip and post-trip exercises. Standard (summary)	Relevance to The Constitutional Walking Tour
Identify symbols, artifacts and people important to the United States of America.	The Constitutional Walking Tour takes students on a walking journey through Old City Philadelphia, often called America’s most historic square mile, providing students with the unique opportunity to get a firsthand look at the places where some of the most important people in the history of the United States lived and worked. Students also view some of the most important artifacts and symbols of the nation, including Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell!
Compare the lives of people from long ago to the lives of Americans today.	On The Constitutional Walking Tour, students step back in time and walk in our Founding Fathers’ footsteps. Students see many of the buildings and artifacts of long ago, all within the context of the modern city of Philadelphia. Buildings nearly three hundred years old sit across the street from modern museums, while horse drawn carriages traverse cobblestone streets along with modern automobiles.
Describe individual rights and responsibilities in the United States.	As the Birthplace of The Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights, Philadelphia is a great place to come to learn about the rights and responsibilities of American citizens. The Constitutional Walking Tour brings the creation of these foundational documents to life since students see where they were authored and learn about the men who created them. Students also learn about many of the individual rights these documents guarantee as well as why these documents are important.
